HOW MANY TO VOTE FOR AT THURSDAY'S PRIMARY

THERE ARE FIVE ALDERMEN, EIGHT SCHOOL TRUSTEES AND SEVEN COUNCILMEN TO BE ELECTED NEXT NOVEMBER. HENCE THE DEMOCRATS ARE TO VOTE FOR A NOMINEE FOR EACH AND EVERY POSITION—ONLY ONE CANDIDATE IS TO BE NAMED FOR ALL OTHER OFFICES.

Many people are under an erroneous impression regarding the coming primary as pertains to the number of aldermen, school trustees and councilmen to vote for. Some think only six councilmen, four aldermen and six trustees are to be nominated, but this is wrong, as the democrats are to nominate five aldermen, seven councilmen, and eight school trustees, these being necessitated on account of those elected for terms not serving or resigning, and others going on in their place until the November election, when the people name the parties to fill out the remainder of the term for which the original parties were chosen.

The aldermen are selected at large and not from wards, and the public can vote for only five of them out of the following list of candidates: George B. Rouse, Lillard Sanders, Harry George, A. W. Greif, J. S. Hunt, Andy Nieman, Virgil Sherrill, Frank B. Smith, W. F. Hummel and James P. Sleeth.

The councilmen are nominated from wards. Only one is to be elected from the First ward which has candidates of G. W. Morrison and George A. Hannan. Only one councilman is to be nominated from the second ward, and he must be from the list of aspirants from that ward, Effie Williams, James F. Downs and L. A. Graham. Only one is to be nominated from the third ward, and Ollie P. Leigh being the only candidate he will get the nomination. From the Fourth ward only one is to be chosen, Fred Kreutzer and Loh Crandall being the candidates. From the Fifth ward two are to be nominated, and they must be chosen from Riley Stewart, Tom Orr, James McCarthy and Eugene Tuttle, who are that ward's candidates. From the Sixth ward only one councilman is to be chosen, the candidates being Henry McGee and Lew R. Barnes.

Only one school trustee is to be nominated from the First ward, the candidates being J. H. Clayton and Thomas M. Nance. Only one is to be selected from the Second ward, the aspirants being B. T. Davis and Ben Weille. Only one is to be nominated from the Third ward, the candidates being Frank C. Boone and S. H. Winstead. From the Fourth ward two school trustees are to be named, that ward's candidates being Lafayette L. Jones, John A. Cole and George La-Moore. Only one is to be nominated from the Fifth ward, the candidates being Luns Byler and Albert Metcalf. From the Sixth ward two trustees are to be chosen, the candidates being Thomas Goodman, Henry Brame and M. S. Price.

The terms of the four republican aldermen expire this year and democrats will have to be chosen to fill those seats, while a fifth man has to be designated because John W. Little was elected the first of this year to sit in that body until January, 1909. He refused to serve and Frank B. Smith was appointed by the mayor to sit until November, when the people at the polls elect the one to serve the remainder of Little's two years' term. This accounts for the five aldermen the democrats have to select now.

As regards school trustee, Dow Watson was elected for a two years' term commencing January 1, 1907, but refused to sit. Henry Brame was selected to fill this seat until November when the people name the one to sit the remainder of the two year term allotted Watson. A nominee for this unexpired term has to be named, and also one to take the place of Morris, republican, whose term expires the last of this year, for that ward.

In the Fourth ward George La-Moore was elected to sit for two years beginning last January, but refused to serve, and Peter Beckenbach was named to sit in Moore's stead until next November, when the people name whoever is to sit the remainder of Moore's two years. For this ward the term of Dr. List expires and a nominee must be chosen for his chair, hence this accounts for the two having to be named for the Fourth.

All the councilmanic wards will have to name the one nominee to take the place to be vacated by the republicans now in, but who go out the last of this year. In addition to this one nominee for each ward, a second nomination will have to be made for the Fifth ward, as George Shelton, elected to serve for two years beginning last January, resigned, and Eugene Tuttle was named to sit until November when the people designate whoever shall fill out the remaining fourteen months of Shelton's term. This accounts for the extra nomination from that ward.

As there seems to be much confusion among many as regards how many shall be nominated, it would be well for all to clip this article out and have it before them election day, so it may be used as an authentic guide, and prevent the voters from balloting for too many, or not enough. If anybody votes for too many candidates their ballot is thrown out and they lose their vote.

For all other offices only one nominee is to be chosen.

The polls open at 6 o'clock next Thursday morning and close at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

DEAN OF HOUSE OF LORDS

Lord Gwydyr, British Patriarch, Celebrates 97th Birthday.

London, April 27.—Lord Gwydyr, the patriarch of the British peerage, was ninety-seven years old today. He enjoys remarkable health for a man of his years, and confidently expects to round out a century. Lord Gwydyr comes of a very ancient family, though it was only in 1796 that they were raised to the peerage. For forty years Lord Gwydyr was secretary to the Hereditary Great Chamberlain.

Lord Gwydyr attributes his longevity to the fact that, among other things, he inherited a superb constitution and has always taken good care of it, eating and drinking in moderation and taking plenty of outdoor exercise. He never used tobacco in any form.

Lord Gwydyr has lived in five reigns and has witnessed four coronations. Vividly he still recalls the first of these, that of George IV, which he attended as a boy of 10, accompanying his grandfather in the latter's state barge, which was rowed by six men in handsome livery from Whitehall stairs to Westminster.

YOUNG MAN CHARGED WITH DYNAMITING CHURCH

Elkton, Ky., April 27.—John Phelps, aged 19 years, and a son of a well-known farmer, was arrested here today on a charge of dynamiting the Methodist church at Providence, several miles northeast of this place, several weeks ago. He waived examining trial and was held to the grand jury in $500 bail, which he furnished with his father, W. H. Phelps, and brother, J. T. Phelps, as sureties. Great indignation was caused by the deed with which Phelps is charged and a reward of $100 was quickly made up by citizens and deposited with the sheriff for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties.

Another young man's name is mentioned in connection with the crime, but no warrant has as yet been issued for him and he is said to have left the county. The church was not damaged to any considerable extent beyond the shattering of about seventy-five small panes of glass. The penalty under the Kentucky law for the crime of dynamiting a building is confinement in the penitentiary for a term of not less than two nor more than ten years.

NEGRO SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

Police are Holding Suspected Assailant of Miss Spencer at Alton.

Alton, Ill., April 27.—The police today arrested a negro named Richard Sims and are holding him on suspicion that he attacked Miss Violet Spencer and slashed her with a razor on the street last night. His description tallies with the description Miss Spencer gave of her assailant. The police say they have another negro under surveillance.

Miss Spencer will recover from her injury. She wore a heavy cloak which prevented the razor making a fatal wound. Intense excitement prevails in Alton and a posse of citizens is still under arms.

The police got a long distance telephone yesterday from Mayfield asking that Erby Hollingsworth be taken charge of and held if found. The boy is 12 years of age and ran away from his home in that city Friday, wearing yellow pants, a black and red sweater, and light hat, when departing. REV. J. D. BLACKARD MADE FINE TALK AT BARDWELL MONDAY.

CHURCH FURNISHING SOCIETY GIVES SHIRTAUST SALE MAY 11.

Woman's Home Missionary Auxiliary of the Trimble Street Church, Gives Social Session.

One of the most delightful evenings our people have enjoyed in quite a while was the occasion of Dr. J. W. Blackard's lecture on his trip to Europe at the Methodist church Monday evening, says the Bardwell (Ky.) News. He has a subject that is interesting, and he handles it in a way that no one could resist the temptation to become interested. His description of the storm at sea, lasting for two days and during which the good ship tossed uneasily upon the billows, was especially interesting.

Dr. Blackard visited the principal cities and points of interest in England, Scotland, Switzerland and Italy, and he tells of the customs of the various people with whom he came in contact in a way that attracts his auditors to the subject matter.

Another intensely pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the music which was furnished by our local musicians. Bardwell can congratulate itself upon having musicians that cannot be excelled in any small city or town, and for proof of this allegation we have only to refer to the program rendered Monday evening. The voices were well trained and the rendition of the several numbers was complimented in a way that indicated that it was really appreciated.

CLAIMS MAN WANTED MULE

WILLIAM EADES TESTIFIED THAT CATES WANTED MULE GIVEN HIM.

Frank Fisher Stated He Could Not Get Cars on Account of Road Using Them for Contract Mines.

The interstate commerce commission finished its sitting yesterday at Louisville, where complaints were made by owners of West Kentucky coal mines, regarding the Illinois Central not furnishing enough coal cars for the mines to ship their output.

William Eades, secretary of the Hillside Coal company, at Greenville, in testifying that his company had been discriminated against, said in order to get cars he had paid tribute to Conductor Sam Cates, giving him clothes, shoes, tobacco, groceries and other articles from the company's store. When Cates asked him for a mule he balked and then had more trouble in getting cars. He also testified to instance of discrimination in the furnishing of cars of competitors.

F. M. Fisher, of Paducah, of the Nortonville Coal company, testified that his mines have a rated capacity of 800 tons daily and that the Illinois Central has allotted him a maximum of ten cars and a minimum of five cars daily.

Asked if he knew anything of a preference being shown to those mines which have contracts with the Illinois Central, Fisher said: "I called on Mr. McCabe, the train dispatcher, and asked why the service was so bad. He said the road had all it could do to take care of mines with which it had contracts and that there were no cars available for handling commercial coal."

WAR AGAINST CIGARETTES.

Boys Form New Club in Oak Park to Fight Habit.

Chicago, April 27.—In an attempt to decrease the cigarette habit among the boys of Oak Park a new boys' club was formed yesterday which is to be known as the Triangle Athletic League of Oak Park. The movement, which originated with the boys' work director of the Oak Park Y. M. C. A., is backed by the principals of the public schools, the management of the new organization being in the hands of an executive committee composed of the principals, the superintendents of the schools and the officers of the Y. M. C. A.

A mass meeting of all Oak Park boys was held yesterday afternoon in the Warrington Opera house, 750 boys being present. The meeting was addressed by W. L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education of Chicago. Cards were distributed among those present and about 500 signed pledges not to use tobacco or liquor.

OLD CLOCK RESUMES OPERATIONS AFTER FIRE

Paducah, Tenn., April 27.—Miss Grace Roller, chief night operator at the central telephone office, reports a "peculiar occurrence" which happened the night the court house was burned. The office clock, which had been running as usual, stopped about the time the fire began and on going to wind it she found that it did not need winding but was unable to start it, and it remained at a standstill until the fire was over and voluntarily resumed its work. Miss Roller declares that no one had touched the clock since she attempted to wind it.

Another strange thing was the finding in the circuit court room in the second story of the court house the old Bible used to administer oaths, and which had been in use since 1870. Practically everything in the room was destroyed, but the Bible escaped, except for being soaked with water.

COLLEGE DEAL DIFFERENT ONE

THE LOUISVILLE PROJECT DOES NOT AFFECT PADUCAH

METHODIST EDUCATIONAL BOARDS LEND ASSISTANCE

ONE OF THE MIGHTIEST COLLEGES OF THE WORLD LOCATED

This Does Not Affect the Project Whereby Paducah is Working for a Speed Institution

A deal has been negotiated between the Louisville college and the Methodist conference educational board regarding establishment of a mammoth college in that city. The project has been in charge the several million dollar Speed fund out of which colleges are to be erected. Some of the board have visited Paducah in looking over the state. No decision has ever been reached and one of the most interested local men trying to get the one of the colleges here, announced yesterday that he had received word to effect that the big Louisville deal had no connection whatever with the project to establish colleges over the state, therefore Paducah has chances of having an institution of this character, maintained on an enormous scale, as bright as ever.

The conference educational board, which has charge of the fund, has been so busy with this Louisville deal that it has not had time to devote any attention whatever during the past six months to the project of locating three smaller institutions in Kentucky. When they get the Falls City matter off their hands, whether will be taken up, and Paducah will work hard to secure one of the institutions.

Speaking of the Louisville deal the Louisville Times says: "A contract was entered into between the trustees of the University of Louisville and the board of education of the Louisville conference, M. E. church, South, and the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church whereby the two church boards relinquished all efforts to establish a separate university and each donate $500,000 to the University of Louisville in consideration of which they will be allowed to maintain schools in connection with the university. These schools will separate from the Central College of Liberal Arts of the university, but will be under the control of the university. The religious boards, however, may name their own trustees, subject to the veto power of the trustees of the University of Louisville."

"The university will be non-sectarian in every sense, but will be under religious influence, as has always been the desire of the trustees. The contract with the two Methodist boards also provides that the university may enter into a similar contract with the Baptist church, which has raised conditionally a large amount of money to establish a large university in Louisville. The deal for the consolidation of the Baptist project for a university with the other projects is now pending. Dr. Gallifre gave mountain land valued at $100,000 for this purpose and Theodore Harris gave to the Baptist fund $100,000 in money on condition that an additional $500,000 be raised."

MILK MATTERS

No Conference Held on Account of Scarcity of a Quorum.

The board of health for the city last Monday arranged for a conference with the dairymen yesterday at the city hall to see if conditions could not be bettered regarding keeping things clean around the dairies and improve conditions otherwise. At the appointed hour yesterday many milk sellers were on hand at the city hall, but not a quorum of the health authorities showed up, so no meeting could be held.

The dairymen there were: Claude Russell, W. Y. Griffith, L. B. Cross, R. A. Russell, W. H. Graves, J. R. Cooper, E. R. Smalley, J. B. Walters, Henry Coleman, Baumer Bros., W. A. Clark and several others.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY..

The final gathering of the Magazine club until next October was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler, of Fifth and Kentucky avenue, and was a most attractive affair with this charming hostess, many interesting features being on the program.

During the business session Mrs. George C. Wallace and Misses Helen Lowery and Anna C. Webb reported upon the year-book to be followed when the ladies resume their gatherings next October. The outline provides that instead of the club women studying from sixteen periodicals next season, that the number be reduced to eight, those selected being Scribner's, Literary Digest, North American Review, Cosmopolitan, Outlook, Century and Harper's. Another change made was that on resumption of the sessions, only six reports will be made during the meetings, instead of twelve as heretofore, this making it so that each member presents a topic once every two months instead of monthly, as in the past, provision being made that if the member cannot be present to report on the periodical assigned her, a substitute must be in attendance to do so. On roll-call the responses will be from "Current Events" and the new year-book will be published immediately. The book will be in the club colors of gold and white.

After disposing of their business Thursday, the ladies indulged in a literary session, Mrs. Hal S. Corbett reporting from "Play-folk," as taken from the Saturday Evening Post; Miss Minnie Ratcliffe on "The Growth of Caste in America," Mrs. George C. Wallace on "Life as I Have Seen It," as taken from Ella Wheeler Wilcox's writings in the Cosmopolitan; Miss Anna Webb on "A Description of the New York Cathedral—St. John the Divine."

Mrs. William T. Gould of New York and Mrs. Maude Blanchard of Boston were the out-of-town guests present, and following the reports and business the guests indulged in a delicious course luncheon.

On resuming next fall the club holds its initial session the first Thursday in October with Mrs. E. G. Boone of South Sixth street.

Burch-Wurtz.

Miss Myrtle Burch and Mr. Joseph Albert Wurtz were married at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at St. Francis de Sales church by Rev. Father Jansen, many friends attending the ceremony, at which the pretty bride looked very sweet and attractive in white organza and a white picture hat, with a bouquet of bridal roses. Messrs. Edward Wurtz and Ernest Englert were the ushers, and that evening from 8 until midnight the happy pair entertained with a charming wedding reception at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burch, of 908 Broadway, many friends calling to extend their hearty congratulations to the popular couple.

Quite elaborate was the delicious luncheon served during the evening, white and green being the colors predominating. After May 1 the couple will be at home to their friends at 912 Jackson street.

"The Traveling Man."

Paducahans have in store for them one of the finest of amateur attractions in the approaching presentation of "The Traveling Man," which is one of the catchiest and most entertaining productions ever presented by local talent. It will be placed before the public the evening of May 10 at the Kentucky for the benefit of the Charity Club and the Humane Society and rehearsals are being constantly held every few days by those who will take part, under the direction of Mr. Boyle Woolfolk of Louisville, who wrote the play and has had great success with it in the many large cities presented.

The best talent from among the prominent young society people of Paducah will aid in the production, the leads being taken by Mrs. David M. Flournoy, Misses Nella Hatfield and Mayme Dreyfuss, while the other features have been carefully arranged, and a most beautiful performance will be presented.

Those in charge are Mrs. Geo. C. Wallace general manager, with Mrs. Cook Husbands, assistant; Mrs. James Weille chairman of program committee with Miss Kathleen Whitfield assistant; Mrs. Edmund M. Post official chaperone; Mrs. Soy W. McKinney chairman of the ticket committee, and Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, treasurer.

Mr. Woolfolk takes the leading male role of "Jim Dandy" and sells steam radiators, while the remaining four drummers taking individual parts are Messrs. Richard Scott, William Brazelton, Everett Thompson and Emmett Bagby. David Reddick and Reddick and Douglas Bagby are the comic potter, bell boy and clerk.

The time for rehearsal of the different choruses, cast, etc., this week are:

Monday—4 p. m., Pony chorus;

7:30 p. m., cast.

Tuesday—4 p. m., Pony Chorus;

5:30, cast; 7:30 p. m., Ladies and Men's Choruses.

Wednesday—2:30, Uppen Ten, alone; 4 p. m., Pony Chorus; 5 p. m., Village Belles, alone; 7:30, cast.

Thursday—Same as Tuesday.

Friday—Same as Wednesday.

Saturday—11 a. m., Bell Boys;

2:30 p. m., Pony Chorus; 5 p. m., cast; 7 p. m., Ladies and Men's Choruses.

The scene of the play is laid in a small town in Texas in the Claire House, Belle Claire, daughter of the proprietor is in love with Jim Dandy, the traveling man, who sells steam radiators. In looking over her mail to see if he has answered her last letter she finds a note from him and also a blue envelope addressed to him with the monogram "D. S."

Belle notices the show bills of the Daisy Shine Opera company, and concludes that Jim Dandy's note is from Daisy Shine. Consequently she writes to the traveling man saying that she has been called out of town by the illness of her father who is away for his health. After the opera company arrives, Belle discovers by overhearing a conversation of the manager and Dolly Snow that they are passing off Dolly Snow for Daisy Shine, the real star being too ill to leave the last town in which the company played. Belle decides to disguise herself as Daisy Shine and to catch up with Jimmy. From this the complications arise. The manager learns that there is another one and is up in the air. Jim Dandy makes love to both of them, while another drummer falls in love with Dolly Snow. At the finale the real Daisy appears having recuperated and come in on a freight train. She is in a flurry when she heard some one is impersonating her, Belle, after catching Jimmy making love to the other Daisy and upbraiding him, at last has to seek his protection and confess the part she has played, in order to keep her secret from the real Daisy and the manager. They make up, and two other drummers fall in love with Dolly Snow and Daisy Shine. The manager is assured of a packed house for the performance. Jim Dandy then receives a telegram from his firm announcing his election as vice-president and general manager. Jim celebrates the event and leaves with Belle for the east.

There are a number of minor complications, and these, combined with the catchy songs and a beautiful chorus of local belles will make it undoubtedly a great success.

Both Well Known Here.

Miss Julia Jones and Rev. Walter Holcombe were united in marriage April 17 at Cartersville, Ga., the nuptials occurring at the residence of the young lady's mother, Mrs. Samuel P. Jones, widow of the noted evangelist who died a short time ago.

Both the parties have visited in Paducah, the handsome and cultured bride several years ago when her distinguished father conducted his last revival at the tobacco warehouse on Broadway. Dr. Holcombe held a successful revival at the Broadway Methodist church several years ago, he being a widely known evangelist who made many Paducah friends.

He was with the late Rev. Jones when the latter was stricken dead on a train entering Memphis.

The Delphic Club.

Mrs. D. A. Yeiser presented a fine paper on "Canovas" at the Delphic club meeting Tuesday morning at the library. Mrs. Elizabeth Austin's paper was on "Sagasta" and that of Mrs. Frank Barnard on "Castellar." Mrs. Muscoe Burnett reports on "The Royal Museum" at this week's session and Mrs. Mildred F. Davis on "The Royal Palace and Royal Family."

Social Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Schmidt, of Hershman boulevard had as their guests Monday evening at a charming affair the social club of the German Lutheran church. Music and games were the sources of amusement and dainty refreshments were served.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. William Rottgering, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz, Misses Freda Dunbar, Josephine Bundesman, Katie Baker, Ida Nieman, Stella Ketter, Elsie Hoewischer, Hattie Dunbar, Messrs. Gottlieb Rouf, John Birth and the Rev. Mr. Bents.

Entertain for Sufferers.

Some evening this week the Epworth league of the Trimble street Methodist church will give its entertainment for the benefit of the Chinese sufferers. It was intended to present the beautiful program last Friday evening, but a postponement was taken on account of the circus being on the adjoining grounds and occasioning much turmoil and noise.

Popular Couple Wed.

Miss Jennie Depew and Mr. Andrew Davis were united in wedlock Tuesday evening at the Kentucky avenue Presbyterian church parsonage by Rev. J. P. Henry, it being a quiet affair with no attendants, and witnessed only by the immediate relatives.

Very pretty and dainty was the young bride, who is an exceedingly popular girl, and a daughter of Mrs. Margaret Umbaugh of South Eleventh street.

Mr. Davis is a valued attaché of the Rhodes-Burford establishment, and together with his happy bride, is installed at Sixth and Norton streets, where they are keeping house.

Kalesophic Club.

Miss Mary Scott reported on "Current Topics" at the meeting of the Kalesophic club Friday morning with Miss Blanche Hills of North Ninth street. "Pierro and His Plays" were told of by Miss Katharine Powell, and the "Life and Dramatic Art of Stephen Phillips—Poet and Francesco," by Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

The numbers proved very entertaining, and during the gathering the members selected Mrs. Henry Rudy as the hostess for the May sessions.

The Crescendo Club.

Very attractive was the miscellaneous program presented during the Crescendo club meeting Thursday afternoon with Miss Virginia Newell of North Seventh street. "The History of the Tannhauser Opera" was presented by Miss Mae Frederick, while "The Song of the Evening Star" was played by Miss Helen Hills.

May 9 the club will hold its final meeting for the summer, while on May 13 Miss Newell will give a social affair in remembrance of the closing gathering.

The evening of June 5th the club will have Mr. Lieblich to appear before them at the Woman's club auditorium, if the building is ready for occupancy by that time. He is one of the most noted and finished artists of the country and will be welcomed by a large audience.

Paducah Chapter, D. A. R.

The regular May meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held Friday afternoon with Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler, of Fifth and Kentucky, at which time Mrs. Leslie Soule presents "The American Revolution from an English Standpoint." The Continental Congress that has just adjourned at Washington will be told of by Miss Emily Morrow.

A charming musical programme has been arranged for presentation during the gathering.

Received for Bride.

Mrs. John U. Robinson of the Cochran flats, at Ninth and Monroe streets, received from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Marvin Love, a bride of Jackson, Tenn., who with her husband is visiting Mrs. Robinson while on their wedding tour. Many friends called and met the charming young matron

COLUMBIAN KNIGHTS.

Big Meeting Will Not Be Held Until Sometime in June.

No new date has been selected for the big meeting to be conducted here by the Knights of Columbus, at which time a class of about fifty candidates will be admitted to the body and the degree work be followed with a small banquet that evening.

The Knights had intended to hold the mammoth session April 15, but there came up different matters necessitating a postponement, and since then the brethren have not had time to get together and fix the new date. It will hardly occur before the middle of June, though.

"Honest John" Anderson of the Washington team has the "wicked eye" this season and when he steps to the plate the fielders start to move.

The Columbus, Ohio, club has a new pitcher named Upp. Of course it is up to Upp to be up to snuff and not go up in the air when the heavy hitters are up. Git up.

The witches are still after Pat Flaherty of the Boston Nationals. He lost his first game to Philadelphia by 6 to 5. The same old one-run loser.

If the New York Americans had the White Sox pitching staff. But what's the use of "if-ing."

Outfielder Mike Welday played nice ball on his first appearance with the Chicago White Sox.

The Boston Nationals are playing to the largest crowds the South End grounds have seen in years.

BATTLE FOR RELAY HONORS.

Philadelphia Scene of Great Inter-Collegiate Athletic Meet.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 27.—For the thirteenth time the selected athletes of colleges and schools throughout a large section of the United States lined up on Franklin Field this afternoon to arrive for honors in the annual relay carnival under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania. Year by year the number of contestants has represented, practically every important school east of the Mississippi river, with a scattering of men from beyond that point and Canada.

Besides the Big Six of the Eastern universities there are a large number of smaller colleges represented, including Brown, Syracuse, Amherst, Williams, Wesleyan, Dartmouth and the University of Maine.

The University of Michigan again heads the Western delegation, which is larger than ever before. The Southern representatives include teams from Georgetown, University of Virginia and other strong institutions.

The programme provides for three races to determine the college championship of America. One is for a distance of one mile, each man to run a quarter mile. The second is to be four miles, each man to run a mile. The third is to be a two-mile race, each man to run a half mile.

He served throughout the Mexican war, as well as the civil war.

FRANK A. LUCAS

The candidacy of Mr. Frank A. Lucas for the office of city attorney is arousing considerable interest, and his chances of success are seemingly bright. If he should be elected the people of Paducah will have a two-fold guarantee of good service, the first arising from his well known, excellent personal character, as a man of honor and probity; the second comes from his wide and varied experience in the practice of, and his close application to the study of, legal science. That both of these solid foundations is shown by the high esteem in which he is held by the community at large and the records of the courts of the state of Kentucky.

On being seen yesterday Mr. Lucas stated:

"I am making this race solely on my merits and qualifications. I have lived in Paducah for six years, and do not believe there is anyone in the city who can say that in any dealing with him I have not treated him right. If I am elected to the office of city attorney I propose to pursue the same policy that I have always pursued in both public and private life, that is, to give to the duties of the office my ability and to treat everybody right. The only promise I have to make to anyone is that if I am elected to this office every one may rest assured of a 'square deal' at my hands. I stand for a strict enforcement of the law, so that the guilty may be punished and the innocent protected."

START FOR ROME.

Boston, ass., April 27.—A contingent of America's foremost Sunday school educators, 325 strong, left this port today on the specially chartered steamship Romane en route to Rome where the party will attend the fifth world's Sunday School convention, which is to assemble in the Italian capital on May 18. Because of the large number of Americans who are to attend the gathering it has been found necessary to charter two vessels especially for the use of the Sunday school pilgrims. In addition to those leaving on the Romane about 200 delegates will depart on the steamship Nekkar leaving New York today. At Rome the two companies will meet, remaining together during the convention and tours about Rome.

The convention in Rome is expected to be the largest gathering of its kind ever held. In addition to the leaders in Sunday school work of two continents there will be present men and women fresh from missionary fields in nearly every country of the missionary world, for the convention will, in large measure, be a missionary Sunday school convention. Arrangements have been made to hold services in a number of the Roman churches and a monster demonstration will be held in the ruins of the Coliseum, the largest amphitheater in the world, and seating between 40,000 and 50,000.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80 PER PAIR

Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To introduce we will sell you a Sample Pair for Only $4.80 (Cash with order $4.50). NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, FINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS. Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire. Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is light and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "holding back" sensation commonly felt when riding on a flat tire is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all leakage. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You cannot try a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.56 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDERS and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two business metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy punctures. Tires to be returned at full expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination). We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us in an advance sale, as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Neighbor, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look better than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES: built-up wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big BUNDELY catalogue. DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write to HEAD CYCLE COMPANY, Dept. "JL" CHICAGO, ILL.

MAKING IT HOT.

The Paducah News-Democrat, the organ of the whisky and corporation interests, incidentally pays a tribute to the ability of the Register to make it hot for that gang. That sheet credits us with a reputation for warming things up so extensive that even the devil himself seems to be of the opinion that we can discount him when it comes to making things hot. We have always had reasons to believe that The Register has made it rather hot for the whisky gang and franchise grabbers, but we had no idea that the effect of the blows we have delivered in behalf of temperance, good government and the common people had resulted in that crowd awarding us the palm in the matter of raising sheet, as is made manifest in the little illustration used by their organ in its reference to us yesterday.

A few days ago when an item appeared in The Register in regard to the raising of whisky licenses in Owensboro, the News-Democrat immediately published an article saying that the empty treasury of that city was due to municipal ownership. As nothing had ever been said by any newspaper or person about the shortage in the funds of that city being due to the fact of the city owning its water and light plant, and the News-Democrat assuming to attribute the scarcity of funds to that fact, in our reply next day we merely applied that News-Democrat's theory of reasoning to Paducah by saying and asking:

"According to the News-Democrat, a corporation organ, municipal ownership is responsible for the depleted treasury at Owensboro. If this is true about Owensboro, will the News-Democrat please explain why the city of Paducah began the good year of 1907 with a deficit of Forty-five Thousand Dollars? ... The corporations dominate Paducah and squeeze the very life out of the consumers and on top of this we had a deficit of $45,000 for 1906, but the corporation organs do not attribute that fact to the corporations. Oh, no! But because Owensboro owns a water and light plant, and happens to have no money to pay a month or so salaries, the corporation organs at once attribute those conditions to municipal ownership. If a deficit in a city owning its public utilities dominated by a whisky ring is a but reasonable and fair that the deficit of $45,000 in a city dominated by corporations and the whisky interests should be chargeable to corporate and whisky domination."

We have always said and still say that the republican general council was responsible for the deficit of $45,000 at the close of 1906, but when the News-Democrat attributed Owensboro's shortage of funds to municipal ownership we said, "If—mind you we used the word 'if'—if this be true about Owensboro, will the News-Democrat please explain why the city of Paducah began 1907 with a deficit of $45,000?" And further along, "If Owensboro's deficit is due to municipal ownership, is it but reasonable and fair to charge Paducah's deficit to corporation and liquor domination. This was merely applying the News-Democrat's reasoning to Paducah also."

The News-Democrat attempts to make it appear that we are attempting to shift the responsibility from the republicans to the corporations, and then illustrates it with the following:

"He has put himself in the place of another historic disturber of the public peace, who, when he died, sought admittance to heaven and was denied. Then for company's sake he went to the other place and demanded admittance. Old Satan had heard about the fellow and through a crack in the door of Hades said: "No, Jimmy, you can't come in. You would not be here more than half a minute before you'd start one of your municipal ownership heating plants. I'll just give you a chunk of brimstone and a torch and let you start a little hell of your own outside."

As the News-Democrat is the organ of the whisky and corporation interests, who are in the devilish business of wrecking human souls and robbing their fellowmen, they are undoubtedly in a position to be most excellent judges of a newspaper's sheet raising qualities, and we hear it from their organ that we could make it hot for the very devil himself, which we take as a compliment and a badge of distinction. Ever since The Register has been established it has had no hesitancy in making it hot for the devil and all of his allies on earth and especially his lieutenants in Paducah. On general principles we would not go to hell if we could, and more especially when we have reasons to believe that it is packed and jammed with people exactly like many here in Paducah, who pose as respectable men, when in fact, they are at the bottom of the major part of the devilment, misery and woe with which this city is afflicted. And if it is all the same to the News-Democrat and its crowd, we will hang on to that chunk of brimstone and torch, and keep up a little institution of the kind indicated here in Paducah, for their special benefit, and in order that they may become fully acclimated before going hence.

A Word to the Voters.

(Paducah Baptist Messenger.)

Before the appearance of our May issue the democratic primary will be a thing of the past. Fortunately for the voters there is no confusion as to the issue. What each candidate stands for seems to be well and generally known. The time has come for the moral, lawabiding element to present a solid front and stand as one man. The lawless and vicious lay aside petty differences to secure a common result. They talk about work for and invest money in their candidate. Inclement weather and business engagements never keep them from the polls. They see to it that every voter friendly to their candidate duly casts his vote. Shall we do less than this? Remember several years will elapse before this opportunity again presents itself. Now is the time. This is a favorable hour. As a true patriot cast your vote, no matter how great the sacrifice. Use every atom of your power to help enslaved Paducah throw off the shackles of rum. Vote to save the boys and girls for a splendid citizenship. Vote to save the dimes and dollars of our wage earners for the legitimate channels of an honorable commerce. Vote, and by your vote say every office holder that stands hand in glove with whiskey and winks at the violation of the law, "your doom is sealed."

Again we would caution every voter who has the welfare of the city at heart to investigate the records of all the candidates who are to be voted for at the primary election Thursday. Educational ballots are now being distributed and it is an easy matter for every citizen to ascertain how the various candidates stand on questions of public interest. In the list of candidates for general council are men who are most pronounced corporation tools—they make no pretensions towards being for the people on any question whatever and in our opinion they not above selling their votes. It is not necessary for a man to be in a public office to be a full fledged grafter. A grafter is one who is always looking for a rake off on any and everything he may do for another. He will pose as a public spirited man and one would suppose that he is putting in his time boosting for mere glory, but it finally creeps out that he gets a rake off on everything he does. In fact you can take a few dollars and buy him on any side of a proposition. Being purchasable it is his ambition to get in public office where he can use his office for his own personal gain by favoring those who make it to his pecuniary interest to do so.

The good citizens of Paducah can name the next list of city officials, but they must get together and pull together. The whisky element, the gamblers and the immoral class are united and if they can win the city will be dominated by that element. The laws will not be enforced and graft will be rampant. The Register has ever stood on the side of law and order and all it desires to see is the affairs of this city in the hands of honest men. Every good citizen can aid in the good work. It is to their interest to do so both in a financial and a moral way.

The Kentucky board of health should follow the example of the Indiana board in regard to street vendors and others protecting the edibles they offer for sale from dust, dirt and insects. The follow order is being enforced in Indiana: "No manufacturer, dealer, vendor or other person shall expose for sale or exchange or sell any bread, pastry, confectionery, shelled nuts or other food so prepared that it is ready for consumption, unless such food is properly protected from insects, dust, dirt and other foreign or unwholesome material by suitable coverings." The state chemist has issued a warning to such vendors to observe the order or a fine of $10 will be inflicted on all who fail to do so.

The candidates for the democratic nominations are coming down the homestretch, and the races will soon be ended. Let the voters do their figuring and thinking now, and vote for none but good men.

Every voter in the democratic primary should have his certificate of registration with him when he applies to vote.

Newspapers and Subservience.

(Nashville Banner.)

The New York World, in an article concerning the arrest in New York of the wealthy Philadelphia merchant, named Gimble, charged with a serious offense, the gravity of which was increased by the attempted bribery of the arresting officers, lays stress on the remarkable fact that all reference to the incident was suppressed by the newspapers of Philadelphia, not a line appearing regarding it, and that Philadelphia authorities attempted to prevent the sale in Philadelphia of New York papers containing the news of the arrest. The World declares that the "Philadelphia papers, in suppressing this news, were not concerned about public morals, but solely about the fact that the man under arrest (and who afterwards committed suicide) was wealthy and influential."

There can be little doubt that the controlling motive of the Philadelphia press was to avoid offending a very wealthy and influential business firm, or that the influence of wealth and social prestige was so brought to bear as to cause the newspapers to yield and depart from a general rule in the interest of a favored class. But the futility of this course was plainly and painfully demonstrated when the Philadelphia public, demanding the news, bought hundreds of thousands of New York papers containing accounts of the affair.

The Baltimore News, commenting on the matter, says it is of far more local interest and "involves not only the general issue of wealth and influence, but the far more acute issue of advertising." Says this journal:

"It has to be acknowledged that the modern newspaper, as an independent organ of publicity and opinion, rests upon a peculiar basis. It may almost be said to be a pyramid standing on its apex. It appeals to the great public, the hundreds of thousands who form its audience the whole of the community in which it circulates. But, under modern conditions, the enormous capital invested in it and the lavish expenditure required for its daily maintenance all rest upon the assumption of advertising support. Even more than this is the case, for, as a rule, the great bulk of its advertising revenue is derived from a very small number of business establishments. To offend any one of these means a serious financial loss; to incur the hostility of many of them is to face the possibility of disaster. And in the face of this, the newspaper, if it is to be what a newspaper should be, has got to be independent of the influence of these very people upon whom support it depends, whose good will is so anxious to secure in every proper way but whose desires it is every day and night called upon flatly to refuse to grant if it is to preserve unimpaired its independence and self-respect."

This matter of genuine independence presents two problems which, to most people, are very puzzling. The first is: What difference does it make whether a bit of news is suppressed or not? The answer is that it makes little or no difference, probably, in the individual instance, but what it makes all the difference in the world in the spirit of the whole newspaper. You can't compromise your business virtue for that is what this thing is—without weakening all along the line. You can't have the same confidence in yourself, and your readers can't have the same confidence in you, if you know and they know that at a pinch you will make your editorial management in any particular subservient to your advertising interests. But the other problem is apt to be regarded as more puzzling still: How can the newspaper afford to carry out this policy? Won't it lose its advertisers, one after another, as time goes on? Well, it seems not. The newspaper that has a thorough hold on the public confidence has got something to offer to advertisers that is worth every dollar they put into it, and more. "Keep right on commanding this great asset, and you will find a market for your wares, if not with this man, then with that. You will educate the public to appreciate your independence, and you will get the advertisers themselves to realize that it is a policy which ought to command not only their respect but their good will. It requires some backbone, and it requires some time, to "fight it out on this line," but it is not a Quixotic course, as there is every reason to believe it to be a sound in business policy as it is consonant with a satisfactory ideal of journalism.

TELL OF CAPITOL GRAFTING.

Testimony at Harrisburg Tending to Show Official Corruption.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 27.—State officials were called before the investigating committee yesterday to testify as to whether they made requisitions for furniture purchased by the board of public grounds and buildings of John H. Sanderson & Co., of Philadelphia, and the Pennsylvania Construction company of Marietta, Pa., for the new capital.

The purpose of the testimony of all the officials was to show that their respective departments had been supplied with metallic furniture by the board without it having been requisitioned for, as required by law. Some suggested they had been supplied with more furniture than they had use for.

Clark D. Pond, of Philadelphia, a subcontractor under Payne & Co., contractors for the sheet metal work in the attic of the capitol under a special arrangement with the board, testified that he was paid $22,946 for this work and that Payne had charged the state $35,703.

PIANOS TO GIVE AWAY

At prices and terms that will make you wonder, when you have seen and heard them, how it can be done. Most of our customers do not ask us how good a piano we sell, but how cheap and how long time we will give. By increasing the size of the payments we can reduce the cost accordingly, hence will not sell new pianos for less than $8 per month, hereafter, and make the inducements in the price. This payment has reference to our cheapest pianos. Our cheapest are good, our company makes no piano that they will not guarantee seven years. We can give the strongest reference, for quality and durability, from customers using them in Paducah. If you wish the finest we would be pleased to show them to you. We have been represented here more than a quarter of a century, by men of even longer experience. Our experience and reputation should entitle us to your confidence. If you want jewelry you go to the most reliable house to get it. You do not know the quality, so you go to furnish you. Pianos like watch want some one on whom you can rely to furnish you.

Pianos like watches sometimes have showy cases and a cheap movement, or action. They should not be selected from appearance alone, the number of pedals, or inside attachments, these do not add to the quality or durability of the piano. Buy from a dealer who can show you the intricacies in the action and explain the difference, and advantage one has over the other. There are a number of salesmen in the country that don't know when a piano is out of tune. There are dealers looking for the cheapest piano to sell, regardless of quality. They sometimes value such pianos at three or four hundred dollars, but "being it is you" they will let you have it for two hundred. Pianos are split leather and full stock. Keep this in mind when prospecting, or come in and we will explain.

BANK DEFAULTER IS INSANE

Cashier Leroy Ware of Ottumwa May End Days in Madhouse.

Ottumwa, Ia., April 27.—Leroy Ware, the defaulting cashier of the defunct Farmers' and Drovers' bank of Seymour, was today declared a raving maniac by his physician, Dr. F. L. Maxwell, and it is the belief of the community in general that he survives the delirium into which he was thrown at the discovery of his shortage of nearly $200,000 he will end the balance of his life in an insane asylum.

Since the discovery of the shortage by State Bank Examiner Leland Windsor, Ware's condition has been bordering on that of a man insane, but it was not until this morning that his condition warranted the statement given out by the attending physician.

Another important development of the day was the filing of an attachment suit against Harlan Marsh, who with two other men whose names are withheld are being held responsible for the recovery of upward of $60,000 said to have been withdrawn from the bank under coercion. The bank will be placed in the hands of a receiver next Monday by Examiner Windsor and the depositors hope to obtain at last 50 per cent.

JUDGMENT FOR $10,317.47 AGAINST RIGLESBERGERS

GLOBE BANK AND TRUST COMPANY RECOVERED THAT AMOUNT THAT WAS DUE ON LOAN—JUDGE REED EMPAN-ELS THE PETIT JURIES TOMORROW AND TAKES UP THE TRIAL OF CASES BEFORE HIM—EVIDENCE SHOWS HOUSE-HOLD GOODS AT REHKOPF HOME BELONG TO WIFE AND DAUGHTER—DIFFERENT TRIBUNALS.

Hon. John K. Hendrick, special judge, yesterday gave judgment for $10,317.47 in favor of the Globe Bank and Trust company against Joseph and Frank Riclesberger, it being litigation wherein the financial institution sued the Riclesberger brothers for money the latter borrowed of the bank.

On giving judgment the special judge then consolidated this action with that of the Globe Bank and Trust company against Phoebe Riclesberger and other heirs of the late Frank Riclesberger. In this latter case the bank is suing for about $23-000 claimed due on bonds executed by the Riclesberger interests to guarantee payment of a $25,000 loan, several thousand dollars of which has been paid off.

Judge William Reed empanels the petit jury tomorrow morning and commences trial immediately of the different suits coming up for disposal during this term of court.

Attorney Alben Barkley, guardian ad litem, was made an allowance yesterday in the suit of Weeks against Weeks.

Siegel-Rothschild were given judgment for $27,345 against J. D. Sower-ers, the jeweler, the money being due for goods sold defendants by plaintiff.

There was referred to Master Commissioner Cecil Reed to take proof of claims in the suit of William Leonard against Martin Leonard.

Bankrupt Court.

Referee Bagby of the bankrupt court yesterday dismissed the petition of Trustee A. E. Boyd, of the E.
Rehkopf individual bankruptcy, proceeding, wherein the trustee sought to have turned over to him the house hold furniture and effects at the Reh-kopf home on Washington between Fourth and Fifth streets. Evidence showed that the household effects belonged to the wife of the bankrupt and his daughter, Mrs. J. Earl Walters, hence this property could not be thrown into the trustee's hands to be sold and the money used in paying off the creditors of the bankrupt estate.

The referee issued an order confirming the sale of property by Trustee John C. Parsons of the J. H. Nelson bankruptcy proceeding. In this case the referee directed the trustee to have certain real estate surveyed, in order that it can be put up for sale shortly.

On account of so many matters being brought before the referee he did not have time yesterday to decide the point where the American-Gruman National bank is claiming $47,000 from the estate of the E. Reh-kopf Saddle company's bankrupt estate.

Petition Not Ready.

R. J. Boldry and W. N. Bryan were not ready to file their petition yesterday in the county court, asking that a thirty foot public road be opened through the farm of Robert C.
Potter if the county. They will lodge the document sometime this week,

and the court will then pass on it.

Property Sold.

Property on the North side of Jefferson street has been sold by Henry Burnett to E. W. Whittemore for $1,000 and the deed filed for record yesterday with the county clerk.

Henry Carroll bought from A. C.
Futrell for $500 property on West
Harrison street in the Fountain park addition.

Licensed to Marry.

The clerk issued wedding licenses to the following people: Willie Lums and Lash D. Conway; W. B.
Winchester and Virge Outland; W.
L. Wickoff and Kate Rives.

KILLS HIMSELF FOR HIS DOG

Pathetic Story Back of the Suicide of an Aged Man in the Woods.

Scranton, Pa., April 27.—Back of the suicide of Fred Volger, a farmer of Cherry Ridge (who hanged himself in the woods near his home, in a story of love of great depth in the heart of a man for his faithful dog.

It is a story of a man's appreciation of a dog's life of devotion and of the man laying down his life upon the altar of that friendship. Rover always had a series of wags of his tail and joyous barks for his master.
The dog appeared happy when with Volger, and the master always showed a similar feeling. They were great
"chums."

Volger's son, who was sold to being home some bread, forgot it. There was but one loaf in the house, and the father insisted on giving a big share of that to the dog. A quarrel between the members of the family followed. He tossed most of the bread to Rover. Then the quarrel was renewed. The man threatened suicide. He hurried toward the woods. He threw a rope over the limb of a tree, placed a noose around his neck, and jumped off the box on which he was standing.

FREAK COLT HAS SIX LEGS

of a freak colt that has six legs but no tail. The animal has four fore

The colt is two days old and is in good health. It was born on Mr.
Henderson's farm near Glenison, Tenn.

People from all over the county are flocking to the Henderson farm to see the freak—Fulton Leader.

OLDEST ARCHBISHOP.

Most Rev. John J. Williams Celebrates 85th Birthday.

Boston, Mass., April 27.—Archbishop Williams, who has the distinction of being dean of the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, both in years of life and years of service, celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday today. The venerable archbishop has spent more than 60 years of his life in the church. He was a bishop for 10 years prior to his being made an archbishop 32 years ago.

The Most Rev. John J. Williams is a native of Boston and all his life he has labored for the advancement of the Catholic church in New England. He was ordained to the priesthood in Paris, France, in 1845. On his return home he was assigned to the old cathedral in this city as assistant, and afterwards as rector. In 1859 he became vicar-general of the diocese, and on January 9, 1866, was appointed coadjutor, with the right of succession to Bishop Fitzpatrick, whom he succeeded a few months later. In 1875 Boston was raised to an archbishopric, and on May 3 the pallium was conferred upon Archbishop Williams.

In all the long course of years that he has lived as priest, bishop, and archbishop in Boston, the same zeal and devotion to duty have characterized Archbishop Williams, and it has been said for many years that his is one of the best governed dioceses in the country, and that with church authorities in Rome no bishop in the United States has so high a standing.

Men and Dead Leaves.
You know the fine picture in Homer of the dead leaves which fall to make a place for the young buds. It is as true of men as it is of trees; we have our time and pass away. Behind our vanished youth germinates the youth of others. Our children's destiny ought not to be dulled by what there has been in ours.—Revue des Deux Mondes.

What Trade Owes a Farmer.
Manufacturers of machinery and tools for irrigation ditches, drainage ditches and other land improvements report a remarkable and unparalleled volume of business. They cater to a wide demand which is steadily growing greater. They are in touch with the forehandedness and enterprise of the farmers who have prospered so much that they are able to put much money into the betterment of their property. It will not do to estimate the possibilities of American agriculture by its past or measure its future by the records of years gone by. There will be constant enrichment and improvement and increased productivity throughout the country.—Cleveland Leader.

Man as Railroad Train.
Win an old man for Christ and you have won a wreck. Win a middle-aged man, or even a young man, and you have won a rapidly moving train whose momentum must be overcome, whose machinery must be reversed, and for which a new track must be laid. Win a child and you have won plans and specifications for the finest train ever put upon the road of life. Furthermore, you have full instruction how to construct it, how to equip it and how to run it without delay or accident or wreck.—Fulton Methodist.

Hard Blow to Deceit.
There is nothing that takes the conceit out of a fellow who thinks he is the candy kid more than to have a pretty girl ask him to "please raise this car window for me" and after grunting and sweating and bursting his suspender buttons to be obliged to gasp: "I can't." And when a stalwart chap across the aisle comes to her relief and hoists the window with his little finger and she gives him a sweet smile the other chap sneaks off to an outside seat and sweats by the jumping jehosophat that he will join the athletic club before he is twenty-four hours older.—Los Angeles Express.

Was Prepared.
A French gentleman anxious to find a wife for a nephew went to a matrimonial agent, who handed him a list of his lady clients. Running through this he came to his wife's name, entered as desirous of obtaining a husband between the ages of twenty-eight and thirty-five—a blond preferred. Forgetting his nephew, he hurried home to announce his discovery to his wife. The lady was not at all disturbed. "Oh, yes," she said, "that is my name. I put it down when you were so ill last spring and the doctors said we must prepare for the worst."—American Press.

Faithful Lovers.
Two people will marry in Tennessee, near Tatesville, next August, under unusual circumstances. Neither has ever been married before, and they are respectively 101 and 102 years old. When young people in Tennessee her parents objected to their marrying and returned with her to England. He, Mr. J. W. Burden, moved to California, from where he has returned recently and bought his birthplace. He is to go for his fiancée and return with her to complete their lives in the old home-land. Joy to them and long years.—Baptist Argus.

Money in Greens.
William E. Hogancamp received a few days ago a check for $107.95 in payment for one shipment of spinach, representing one day's work in his spinach field. Mr. Hogancamp has eight acres in spinach and he will probably realize one hundred dollars per acre for it. This check was the largest for a single day's shipment that has ever been received here.—Bardwell News.

CITY PRINTERS HAVE ORGANIZED

ORGANIZER SHELTON OF EVANSVILLE DID THE WORK.

Local Starts With Twelve Charter Members But Others Will Soon Be Taken In.

The printers of the city were organized into a local of the typographical union on Wednesday afternoon by Organizer Shelton, of Evansville. There are twelve charter members of the union and several others will join later on. This will be one of the strongest unions in the city and its existence is expected to be an aid to the other unions in the local field.

The following officers were elected: Paul Stone, president; Taylor Richey, vice president; A. O. Miller, secretary-treasurer, and J. A. Anderson, recording secretary.

The local will meet monthly but it has not yet been determined where the meetings will be held. This leaves but few trades in the city unorganized.—Owensboro Inquirer.

MAD KING IS SIXTY.

Mumich, April 27.—With little visible change apparent either in his mental or physical condition since he ascended the throne of Bavaria twenty-two years ago the mad King Otto today entered upon the sixtieth year of his life. For many years he has never been outside the grounds of the Nuremberg castle. He has been hopelessly insane since the summer of 1884, his kingdom being ruled by a regent, yet the royal title is still vested in the useless piece of clay surrounded by a host of lackeys and servants, who approach and serve their insane master with all outward signs of homage and respect, while Otto and all the world know his utter decay—for he is king.

Reports from time to time have had it that the king has become wiser. Those in a position to know, however, state that this is not true and that there has been little change in his condition since he ascended the throne. He was hopelessly insane then as he is now. His facial features always have been few and of short duration. He is totally ignorant of his terrible affliction and converses on subjects relating to his immediate surroundings logically and with volubility of speech. When at his worst his attendants have the greatest difficulty in preventing him from his mouth with whatever he can lay hands on, and when walking in the park he has been discovered removing grass or leaves, and even filling his mouth with earth. Occasionally he will invite the gentlemen of his court to dinner, and while they are discussing the meal, will himself stand with the servants and stealthily nibble at the dainties within his reach.

His medical attendants and the physicians who visit him from time to time are firm in the opinion that the king may still live many years, his digestive faculties being unimpaired. When of a frolicsome disposition he thoroughly enjoys playing at being a soldier, but he has become too old and awkward to take a keen relish in climbing trees, once his favorite pastime. In his religious devotion he has been known to exhibit great fervor and the celebration of the mass has invariably a soothing influence on his distracted mind.

who is a beautiful and cultured woman. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon.

May Day "At Home."
Mrs. Charles H. Blaney, of Clark, between Fifth and Sixth streets, entertained a number of friends at cards yesterday afternoon in her hospitable home, where a pleasant time was passed.

May Day "At Home."
Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler, of Fifth and Kentucky, will be "at home" on May Day at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Art Department.
"Famous Calligraphs" will be the subject for discussion at the meeting of the Art Department of The Woman's club with Mrs. Edwin Rivers, of South Sixth street, next Saturday morning.

High School Alumni.
The Paducah High School Alumni association holds its final gathering for the summer Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Washington hotel, auditorium on West Broadway, and as it is the closing spring meeting, all affiliates are urged to be present and pay their year's dues.

Miss Ellen Willis will present her paper on "Arts and Crafts" that was held over from the April gathering on account of the inclement weather preventing anything but an unusually small attendance.

Informal Afternoon.
A very pretty "informal afternoon" was that tendered Wednesday by Mrs. Eli G. Boone, of South Sixth street, complimentary to Mrs. Maud Blanchard, of Boston, Mass., the charming guest of Mesdames H. S. Wells and George B. Hart. Many and very happily passed an enjoyable time.

Entertained With Afternoon Tea.
From 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon Mrs. George B. Hart, of West Jefferson street, entertained with a charming afternoon tea, complimentary to Mrs. Maud Blanchard, of Boston, Mass., who is visiting Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells.

Very artistically arranged wattle home with plants and flowers, and the hostess and honored guests were helped to welcome the guests by Mrs. M. E. Lesh, Mrs. Hubbard Wells, Mrs. Edson Hart, Mrs. J. K. Stahl, of Denver; Mrs. Richard Terrell, Mrs. W. B. Mills, Mrs. E. G. Boone, Mrs. James Utterback, Mrs. Edward Brinkhurst, Mrs. Victor Voris, Mrs. William Bradshaw, Jr., Mrs. Luke Russell and Miss Elizabeth Sinnott. Mrs. John W. Little and Miss Lulu Reed poured the tea in the dining hall with the assistance of Misses Anna Bradshaw, Mayme Dreyfuss, Frances Terrell, Hattie Terrell and Belle Cave. Red and green were the table color effects, the centerpieces adorning the center sitting upon a round mirror embossed with geraniums in bloom. Depend from the chandelier were red ribbons reaching to the table corners.

Many called during the afternoon and enjoyed the charming affair. Dainty refreshments were partaken of.

Five Hundred Club.

The Five Hundred club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. L. A. Washington, of West Broadway, and proved an attractive gathering for the club ladies.

School Song-Cycle.

Mrs. Maud Blanchard, of Boston, Mass., will give a song-cycle at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Washington building auditorium, the money derived from the entertainment being contributed to the high school library fund, for benefit of which she appears.

Her program will consist of many excellent pieces and a cordial invitation is extended the entire public to attend, the admission being exceedingly small.

Box Party.

Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman yesterday entertained the young ladies taking part in the "Chrysanthemum Dance" during the Flower Carnival given several weeks ago by the D. A. R. of the Kentucky. She had the girls as her guests at a box party witnessing the "East Lynne" play at The Kentucky yesterday afternoon, those present being Misses Susanne Dabney, Elizabeth Terrell, Emma Boyd, Marie Weille, Rebecca Smith, Edith Cope, La Dossa Isman, Annie Washington, Laura Torrence, Mary Lightfoot, Louise Campbell, Bess Gleaves, Gladys Bolling, Helen Meade Bolling, Genevieve Broyles, Bertha Ferguson, Edith Sherrill and Helen Barkholder.

Atkins-Graham Nuptials.

At 9:30 o'clock the coming Wednesday evening, Miss Elizabeth Adelaide Atkins and Mr. David Raleigh Graham will be married at the First Baptist church, Rev. Calvin Thompson performing the ceremony, while the only attendants will be ushers, Messrs. Thomas Settle, Warren Sights, Charles Kopp, John Orms, Charlie Riecke and James Langstaff. Miss Courtie Puryear presides at the organ.

White embroidered chiffon will be worn by the dainty and charming bride, and following the Southern wedding tour by the happy pair they return to make their home at "White Haven," the country residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. A. Atkins.

Most pleasantly was Wednesday evening whiled away by the Carpe Diem club members at the home of Miss Katie Grogan, of Trimble near Tenth street, four tables being filled with happy euchre players and a spirited game played. Miss Maggie Lydon captured the "lucky" first prize, and Mr. George Mollen that for the gentlemen, on a cut with Messrs. Joseph Roth and Oscar Grief. The ladies' lone hand went to Miss Grogan and the consolation to Miss Minnie Pieper and Mr. Joseph Roth. The game was followed with indulgence in a dainty luncheon served in the strikingly pretty decorated dining hall.

Honor of Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones of Bridge street entertained a few friends Tuesday evening complimentary to the forty-sixth anniversary of the former's birth. A fine time was had by the party indulging in varied amusements, followed with refreshments.

Those there were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiss, of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thurman and Miss Lizzie Schmaus.

Beautiful Song Recital.

The music lovers of the city were treated to a charming evening Tuesday at Eagles' Hall on Sixth and Broadway, at which time Mrs. Maud Blanchard of Boston, Mass., presented a Shakespearean song-recital under the auspices of the Matinee Musical club, the program consisting of thirteen songs dedicated to the genius of Shakespeare by his admirers in different ages. After rendering each song, Mrs. Blanchard would deliver a few explanatory remarks regarding circumstances surrounding the compositions, and she showed herself as a finished artist of cultured voice and unusual ability. One of the songs, "Tell Me Where is Fancy Bred" is from her own pen and very beautiful.

Her reputation as a singer and composer is quite extensive in the East. After the recital she was presented with a handsome floral tribute from the club. The songs rendered were:

"Bid Me Discourse"—Bishop.
"Who is Sylvia?"—Schubert.
"Tell Me Where is Fancy Bred"—Mrs. Blanchard.
"When Icicles Hang by the Wall"—Foots.
"Blow, Blow, Thou Wintry Wind"—Dr. Arne.
"It Was a Lover and His Lass"—Moriow.
"O Mistress Mine"—Carnichael.
"Come Away Death"—Henshel.
"Sigh no More, Ladies"—Stevens.
"I Knew a Bank"—Parker.
"Hark, Hark the Lark"—Schubert.
"Opens with His Auto"—Sullivan.
"Where the Bee Sucks"—Sullivan.

New York, April 27.—At this time of year there is never much attention given to evening gowns, save, of course, in the bridal trousseaus, and yet it is certainly just as important to be attractively robed now as at any other part of the year. Of course, from now on for the next month or two, there are not many formal evening entertainments, and old dresses can be made to serve, but the old costumes will never look quite right among all the new spring suits, and if it is a possible thing there should be provided at least one pretty new dinner frock.

If one would look really spring-like the new French dinner gowns of finest lingerie and lace, worn over a pale colored silk slip will be exceptionally pretty, for the workmanship is so fine and the laces so handsome that such a dress is quite appropriate for even a formal dinner at this time of year; and then, of course, the frock can be worn right through the summer, for it can be cleaned and freshened to look always like new. Pink seems the favorite color for the silk slip, but there are also lilacs, blues and pale greens that are all exquisitely pretty, and then, of course, by having two or more all linings the robes may be made to look quite new each time they are worn. The majority of these lingerie costumes are made in process, with just a suggestion of empire in the back, but many of them are made up with waist and skirt separate, and those are worn with a bright colored or fancy ribbon girdle.

For warm weather capes are to be rather more popular than the cloaks, but a coat with sleeves is always more stylish and more comfortable until on in the spring. There are many wraps of two or more long shoulder capes and loose armholes, the lower cape giving good protection, and this model garment has the added advantage that it cannot possibly injure the most delicate lace of chiffon. All evening coats are made to fasten well up to the throat, with a lace or chiffon collar and jabot, for even if a soft scarf is worn underneath there is danger of cold if the wrap is open at the neck. At this season evening cloaks begin to grow somewhat shorter than winter styles, but they remain very full and loose, so as to be together distinct from the afternoon and carriage garments. The empire model is still a popular one, and is seen in heavy textures, such as cloth and satin, as well as in all the light silks and chiffons.

Butterflies and "rabats" are of the greatest interest to the up-to-date girl who wears the turn-down collar as faithfully as to her brothers, cousins and other masculines. The difference is that hers are embroidered and that she wears with them all sorts of chic and dainty butterfly bows of a lingerie order, as well as those made of silken rosettes. Rabats, which are the long, plaited and lace-trimmed neck fixings that used to be called jabots, are shown in innumerable styles, that have the hall mark of their Parisian origin, and these are also things that use up much of milady's pin money these days.

A fashion which is making a great headway is the big loose sleeve, or, to describe it differently, a big drapery about the armhole, which answers as a sleeve. It is a wonderfully graceful fashion and seems almost universally becoming. This idea is simply a development of the shoulder drapery which has been in vogue all winter. It has now grown more voluminous and is pushed farther off the shoulders.

A new idea in feather fans has been recently introduced. The feathers may be coque's feathers, pheasants, birds or gayer plumage, or the quiet pigeon, and the sticks of tortoise shell. When the fan is closed, the head of the bird ornaments the first stick, and when open, it is on one side. Those who like such a use of birds, consider this a charming effect.

Several novel kinds of sashes have appeared this spring upon gowns designed for younger women. One of these ribbon garnitures, made of silk tassels dangling from the forked points of the "swallowtail" effect into which the ends were divided. Another sash made for a charming bistre colored costume, was likewise of moire ribbon, in this case plain black, tied with a high bow at the back, the hems being finished with fringe. Still another was made of delicate china ribbon, having an exquisitely variegated fringe harmonizing with the floral colors of the sash.

Most attractive among the new suit materials are the striped serges in both fine and heavy weaves. The white serge suit which enjoyed such a vogue last summer, will be more than ever popular, and in addition many interesting stripes are shown. One of these, which is particularly cool-looking, is of a very heavy white serge and has a quarter of an inch broken stripes in warm gray at intervals of half an inch apart. Another very fine white serge has alternate half-inch stripes of navy blue and gray between white spaces of equal length. Fine lines in red on a white ground are in favor once more sometimes so close as to look almost like the old-fashioned mint stick, again a half inch and more apart. Often two or three different colors are harmoniously combined, while black and white in every conceivable width of stripe and spacing are much used.

She was a most lovable and highly esteemed Christian lady with many Paducah friends. She is survived by one child, a 11-year-old girl, and one brother, Rev. J. O. TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

REV. J. E. DIGEL CELEBRATED THE EVENT AT MASSILLION, OHIO.

Members of the German Evangelical Church of This City Sent Handsome Loving Cup.

Rev. J. E. Digel, formerly of this city, but now of Massillon, Ohio, last Monday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ministerial career, and the affair is shown by the newspapers of that city to have been a glorious event. The congregation there had it in charge, it being a public celebration, and a very handsome program was carried out.

As a token of friendship, love and esteem, the members of the German Evangelical church of this city sent Dr. Digel a handsomely engraved gold loving cup for the occasion. It was a very beautiful and costly present.

Rev. Digel was admitted to the ministry twenty-five years ago in this city, his first charge being the Evangelical congregation of South Fifth, where he remained for thirteen years. Twelve years ago he went to Massillon and has been located there ever since. This is ample evidence of the overpowering love for him by his congregation, as when they once secure his services they never give up, he making only one change in the quarter of a century.

He is a brother of Mr. Frank S. Digel, the well-known Paducahan.

Nearly everybody is reading "Lights and Shadows," written by a Paducahan. Price 30c.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE DELEGATES

THE FARMERS' UNION REPRESENTATIVES BE RECEIVED.

The Unions Expect to Carry Several Hundred People to Cairo Today on Their Excursion.

The Farmers' Union delegates will be accepted into the Central Labor body at next Thursday evening's gathering of the latter body at the hall on North Fourth street. The farmers organized their union this winter with several hundred members and two weeks ago sent in their petition to affiliate with Central body, which accepted them, and responded instructing the farmers to name their delegates to the Central body where they will be accepted during this week's meeting. The farmers have already begun learning what goods, vehicles and implements are made by union firms before making their purchases, quite a deal of correspondence to this effect having passed between the tillers of the soil and the Paducah unionists during the past few weeks.

Today's Excursion.

Gems In Spring Suits

It's dressing up time again. Old Winter has received his death blow and Easter is not far off. Welcome Spring with a glad smile and a new Suit. Fashion demands many changes with the new season.

Last Spring's Clothes are now out of date. The wider and longer lapel, the clinging back—with the slightest suggestion of the "corset fit"—and a full skirt are some of the distinctions between the new and old.

The fire departments were called to Twenty-fourth and Broadway last evening at 6 o'clock, a small fire igniting the leaves of the home of Mr. Fitzhugh, causing a very small loss. Some boys set afire some leaves that ignited the roof.

Three Great Novels For Summer Reading

GRAHAM OF CLAVER HOUSE, by Ian Maclaren, author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush." This is a charming historical romance of love, intrigue and adventure by a master hand.

CALEB CONOVER RAIL-ROADER, by A. P. Terhune. Beyond question this is the greatest political novel written in years. A brilliant and thrilling story of the "inside" work in politics.

LATTER DAY SWEET-HEARTS, by Mrs. Burton Harrison. This is one book written with such consummate skill that the interest is sustained from the first to the last page.
